Anglo American Platinum believes in investing in its host communities and encourages its contractors and suppliers to do the same. A generous donation by contractor, Nale Holdings, saw 125 double combination desks delivered to Podile Primary School in Ga-Molekana in Mapela.

“It is important that our contracting partners share the benefits of their contract with our mining communities. This is a requirement specified in contracts with Mogalakwena Complex and we are encouraged by the willingness of our contractors to help our communities,” says community relations manager Peter Lentswane.

“It is not always possible for Mogalakwena Complex to meet every request for help and it is good to see that we can count on our contractors to contribute to the growth and wellbeing of our communities,” he adds.

Nale Holdings director Mmote Nale says that proper furniture will ensure that the learners and teachers are comfortable while in class. “We will provide 125 double combination desks, five teachers’ desks and chairs.”

“We are glad to contribute to Podile Primary School in a meaningful way. We need to work together to move forward,” he says.

CONTRACTORS CARE... “This is an opportunity that we have grasped, but we will continue to work to ensure a better education for our youth,” says Ga-Molekana Mining Committee chairperson Wilson Nyalungo said while looking at some of the desks donated by Nale Holdings. “ Having grown up in a poor community and attended school under a tree, I am determined to ensure that the children of today have a better experience. It is important to us and to Platinum that the community can share in the benefits that Nale Holdings receives as a contracting partner.
